

Adrian Foster is an organist, composer, and teacher based in Montréal, Québec. He is the co-founder and co-artistic director of Earth World Collaborative (www.earthworldcollaborative.com), a creative force generating new works of music, art, film, and literature through collaboration. He is actively involved with the collaborative as a composer, musician, and producer of immersive story concerts.

As a soloist and collaborative organist, Adrian is dedicated to promoting and interpreting new music. He has commissioned and premiered works from a range of composers, including Michael Bonaventure, Kim Farris-Manning, Jason Noble, and others. Recent concert highlights include appearances with the Société de musique contemporaine du Québec, Analog Arts, the Orchestre symphonique de Montréal, Le Vivier, and the Canadian International Organ Competition.

Adrian has been involved in a wide range of projects as a composer, including electroacoustic compositions, liturgical projects, installations, and sound design. His music has been featured in concerts and festivals in North America, Europe, and Russia. He is published by Firehead Organ Works (www.fireheadorganworks.com).
