

Sarah Svendsen is the Curriculum Design and Program Coordinator for the Royal Canadian College of Organists' (RCCO) Summer Organ Academy. Sarah specializes in organ pedagogy and is completing her Doctorate in Music at the University of Toronto. Svendsen's dissertation research focuses on occupational health and safety for musicians and pipe organists. Her research seeks to gain musicians and artists access to the understanding and support system associated with the field of occupational health and safety.

Svendsen is a concert organist who has performed across North America as well as abroad. She has recorded for the CBC on multiple occasions and is co-creator/performer in the comedic organ duo "Organized Crime Duo", which is well-known for its athletic, inspiring, and always silly stage performances.

Sarah holds a Masters degree from the Yale School of Music, a Church Music Diploma from the Yale Institute of Sacred Music, and a Bachelors degree from the University of Toronto Music Faculty. She also serves on the RCCO National Strategic Planning Committee. For more information on Sarah Svendsen see www.sarahsvendsen.com.
